PROFESSIONAL LEARNING FOR LEARNING COACHES

In a role that requires you to give so much of yourself to others, how do you fill your own bucket? The Coach the Coach program is designed especially for you! Work with an experienced coach and mentor through private sessions personalized for individuals and small groups. Weaving theory into application, you will practice key leadership and coaching skills and strategies, develop resources that you will use immediately in your role, and explore topics that match your professional goals.

PERSONALIZED CONTENT

- Are you new to coaching and in need of a vision and a plan?
- Would you like clarity around your role and responsibilities?
- Are you a part time coach looking to leverage your time and expand your reach?
- Does your school want to revise its philosophy and systems for coaching?
- Are you hoping to cultivate the optimal culture for coaching?
- Do you feel isolated in your coaching role and yearn for a thought-partner with whom you can reflect and plan?

We can explore these topics and more!

FLEXIBLE FORMAT

- online, in-person, or hybrid
- frequent and ongoing touch points
- balance of inquiry-based professional learning and consultative practices
